

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Patricia Nugent/Nick Valente
Middleton & Gendron, Inc.
(212)284-9935/(212)284-9942
pnugent@mg-pr.com/nvalente@mg-pr.com

The Jefferson, Washington, DC Unveils Meetings and Events Offers

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Nov. 23, 2009 – The Jefferson, Washington, DC, the 99-room Beaux Arts jewel in the heart of the nation’s capital, today announced its Inspired Meetings, Meetings and More and Holiday Party packages. These new packages are designed to help small groups take maximum advantage of the one-of-kind venues at The Jefferson, along with the services of its highly experienced and nurturing staff.

The Inspired Meetings package insures that meeting participants look and feel their best while attending to business, thanks to a 30% discount on any treatment at The Jefferson’s Spa. A Deluxe Continental Breakfast Buffet with freshly baked bagels, smoked salmon, seasonal fruits and beverages is included for $24 a person, the same price as a Continental Breakfast Buffet. The Jefferson hopes to literally inspire meeting planners to choose the hotel with a generous 20% attrition allowance, one complimentary upgrade to a Deluxe Suite and a 10% credit on total room revenue to be applied towards a future meeting held by Dec. 31, 2010. Inspired Meetings includes 50% off meeting room rentals and any three-day-long meeting earns a complimentary room rental for the last day. Eight peak guest rooms are required and all meetings must be booked by March 30, 2010 and take place before Dec. 31, 2010.

Meetings and More includes 50% off meeting room rentals as well as a Deluxe Continental Breakfast Buffet for $24 a person, the same price as a Continental Breakfast Buffet.

Book a breakfast, morning break and lunch on the same day and enjoy 25% off your afternoon break. A minimum of $2,000 must be spent on food and beverage and all meetings must be booked by March 30, 2010 and take place before Dec. 31, 2010.

Proving that it's never too late to book a holiday party, The Jefferson's Holiday Party promotion offers additional savings for last-minute organizers. Party-goers will pay just $260 for a Premier guestroom on the night of the party. If a 2009 party is booked now and a 2010 party is reserved before April 2010, planners will enjoy a guestroom rate of $300 a night and 10% off 2010 food and beverage pricing. Groups already looking ahead to 2010 can book 2009 and 2010 parties at the same time and receive a $260 room rate and 15% off food and beverage for both years. Holiday parties must take place between Dec. 1, 2009 and Jan. 15, 2010.

Catering is provided by The Jefferson's renowned executive chef, Damon Gordon. Needless to say, the hotel provides a full array of business services and equipment, including complimentary notary public service.

Three small meeting rooms, a striking boardroom, a private dining room and several parlor-like rooms, each of which is named after Thomas Jefferson's favorite spaces at Monticello, comprise The Jefferson's meeting space. While each room is distinctive in design, all evoke the spirit of the hotel's namesake, who unquestionably presided over some of the most influential gatherings in history.

For more information on meetings and events, please contact Shelly Kissel at skissel@jeffersondc.com or (202) 448-3252.

About The Jefferson

A 99-room Beaux Arts gem, The Jefferson, Washington, DC has an illustrious history catering to Washington's elite. It enjoys one of the city's most prestigious and strategic locations, at the corner of 16th and M Streets – just four blocks from the White House and within a short walk of museums, monuments and embassies. It is convenient to the dining, shops and nightlife of Georgetown and Penn Quarter, as well as the downtown business district and Dupont Circle. Following a full-scale renovation, The Jefferson re-opened August 31, 2009 as Washington's finest small hotel. For more information, visit www.jeffersondc.com.

###